

September 21, 1926.

Investigation at the Second District Police Station records does not reveal anything important in reference to Jessie M. Easton alias Jane Gibson. Records have been examined from 1909 to 1915.

Interview with former detective Captain Clancy, now retired and known as the officer guarding the entrance at the Mechanic National Bank of Trenton, says, that Mrs. Easton went to see Chief Cleary, now dead, and Chief Cleary took the woman to Captain Clancy, saying that she could throw some light on the Louella Marshall murder. Clancy listened to her story and decided that it was of no avail and dismissed her.

I learned from Charles Pilger, retired detective, that he called on Mrs. Easton due to the fact that Louella Edinger, an actress returning home on the night of the murder, did not see her mother at the house and informed her father what she saw. Pilger said he learned that Mrs. Edinger at one time went to the home of Mrs. Easton, and he requested Mrs. Easton to see what she could hear regarding the Marshall murder by women talking in the house. Pilger in his interview with me did not know that Mrs. Easton had ever gone to see Chief Cleary. In fact, Clancy in his interview with me admitted that for a long time he did not know that Pilger had interviewed the Easton woman.

Hyman Silverstein, 332 S. Broad St., a neighbor of Mrs. Easton during her stay in Trenton, says, that he does not know anything concerning her with the exception that she stuck him with $14. for merchandise purchased by her.

I believe that the former investigator, Mr. Pfeiffer, has scared this man into silence like some others I have interviewed.

Officer Sandhoff of the Second District Police Station who did duty on South Broad Street where Mrs. Easton lived says, that numerous complaints were made regarding Mrs. Easton, that she would permit the horses to disturb the neighborhood. In fact, she was notified that she had more dogs than her kennel license permitted, that she did not have them registered, and a policeman was sent to the house to inform her of such.

It appears to me that if counsel will dwell upon the statement made at the time of Marshall murder trial when Mrs. Easton alias Jane Gibson went to Chief Cleary voluntarily and Etc. as above stated I am satisfied that you can break her story.
